

POSITION TITLE: Sewing Instructor/Volunteer
TYPE OF SERVICE: Direct or Indirect	PROGRAM: Economic Empowerment
CONNECTION TO MISSION: The Sewing Program provides skills-based training to women interested in learning to sew and support seeking employment in a sewing related field helping them work towards economic goals and self-sufficiency.
LOCATION: Virtual check ins or at client's home to drop off materials	TIME COMMITMENT: Varies
POSITION DESCRIPTION: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Instruct and/or support students virtually as they learn or develop sewing skills</li> <li>• Provide guidance and feedback for sewing projects</li> <li>• Prepare and distribute project materials to clients home following health and safety guidelines</li> </ul> RESPONSIBILITIES AND EXPECTATIONS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Check in with program director weekly for a progress report on client(s) assigned to you</li> <li>• Report your Volunteer hours via the Volunteer Portal once a month</li> </ul>
REQUIREMENTS / QUALIFICATIONS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Strong sewing skills</li> <li>• Willingness to work through potential language barriers and in-ability to meet in person for instruction</li> <li>• Ability to assist in virtual classroom instruction digitally</li> <li>• Experience teaching sewing (in any capacity) preferred</li> </ul>
IMPACT: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Clients will express deep gratitude to you for helping them learn or refine their sewing knowledge and skills</li> <li>• Help students achieve ownership of a practical skill</li> <li>• Many of our program volunteers bond with clients through sewing and become friends outside of class</li> <li>• Support of the ReEstablish Richmond staff throughout your volunteer experience</li> </ul>

